Choose Salamanca

- ▶ For its friendliness and small size.
- ▶ For its beauty and history.
- ▶ For the student atmosphere and lively social scene.
- ▶ For a glimpse of provincial Spanish life.
- ▶ For its proximity to Madrid.

The City

Salamanca is Spain's most prestigious university town and home to its oldest university. Hundreds of young Spaniards study here from October to June. Salamanca life centres around Plaza Mayor, a beautiful square surrounded by bars, restaurants and shops. Everything in this small town is within walking distance: beautiful churches, ancient streets, bars, restaurants and much more. Segovia, Burgos, Santiago de Compostela, Leon and Madrid are all within easy reach.

The climate is continental, with chilly winters and sunny summers.

Arrival and Departure

From Madrid Barajas Airport, make your way to the train/bus station to catch the train/bus to Salamanca, which departs every hour and takes two and a half hours. Important: You should book your return flight from Madrid airport after 11:30 am, to give you enough time to come from Salamanca on the same day.
